

Concept paper

This paper is intended to serve as a basis for discussion with the European Parliament, the Council and with other Members of the WTO, in response to the conclusions of the European Council of 28 June 2018, which invited the recent years. Indeed, its application has revealed a number of gaps and ambiguities that need to be addressed matter of urgency.

Concept paper

this

quite

Concept

Concept

Concept paper

In this regard, the EU should pursue the following issues:

- ◁ Multilateral negotiations: Maintain support

Concept paper

WTO modernisation

Future EU proposals

Concept paper

allowing the Secretariat to make more qualitative assessments both on notifications and on replies to comments received; iii) publishing both other Members to highlight measures even if they have not been notified – provided that the Member under review does not object to this information being included in the report.

Concept paper

Concept paper

meetings could be reduced, as was

Concept paper

WTO modernisation

Future EU proposals on dispute settlement

Introduction

This paper examines possible approaches in order to

Concept paper

The "US concerns with WTO dispute settlement" have recently been summarized in the Concept paper

Concept

Concept paper

v) The issue of precedent

Providing for regular exchanges between the Appellate Body and WTO Members (e.g. annual meetings), on top of the