Source: Statistics Canada. Table 12-10-0011-01 -

Source: Statistics Canada. Table 36-10

Source: Statistics Canada. Table 36-10-0008-01 - International investment position, Canadian direct investment abroad and foreign direct investment in Canada, by country, annual (x 1,000,000).[5]

By all accounts, NAFTA has worked well and achieved the expected results by expanding trade, increasing investment, generating economic growth, raising living

18( )]TJETQq0.00000912 0 612 792 reW*nBT/F1 11.04 Tf1 0 0

¶ e

For broiler hatching eggs and chicks, Canada will continue to provide the same global

¶ 70% of the aluminum purchased by an assembler for use in vehicle production

¶ p

a predictable and transparent framework of rules across the North American marketplace.

The competition policy chapter furthers the partiesô goal of creating a fair, transparent, predictable and competitive business envir of labour experts to a facility to examine whether the national labour law is being respected. A negative administrative and institutional provisions, and final provisions. More sperrficall4(iy5(v)3(s,)-4( )13(t)he)14[ )

e) The chapter 19 binational panel review of anti-help reduce red tape, facilitate trade and protect the Government's right to regulate in the public interest, including for health and safety.

On May 17r 49uTf1 0 0 1 334.49 666.94 Tm0 g0 G[ )]TJETQ EMC /P <</MCID 2>>BDC 9 0 0 rg BT 1 0 0 1 [illegible]

Some

Despite being negligible at the macroeconomic level, the changes could give rise to discernible effects on some individual retailers and producers in Canada, as well as employment and wages at the affected firms.

Some domestic consumers could be expected to benefit from limited price savings on the ñpublic dom

ANNEX 1: LABOUR MARKET MODULE

The model with the labour market module improves the existing modeling fimw7(ork3(6(ande)d add)i)14()5(ess(he)1s3( )-so)im

69TJETQq0.00000912 0 612 792 reW*nQ/F1 11.04 Tf1 0 0 1 29

ANNEX 2: FINANCIAL SERVICES MODELLING

Barriers to trade and investment in services often take the form of regulatory measures13(f)-4( )6(r)-3(e)13(g)-8(

Canada. These financial instruments BT/F1 11792 cBTf1 0 -BT/.1 0 0 1 89.90ETs,1 0financial 66 61904 681.4

ANNEX 3: C