I[[Z_iYkii_edi*1jW)i*WdZWkj^ehfhe\b[i^ehj^_fkXbYVy_edWy0^;jjfi0%mmm${{i[Wh

* Katrin Kuhlmann is a Visiting Professor of Law at Georgetown University Law Center and the President and Founder of the New Markets Lab. Akinyi Lisa Agutu is a recent Master of Laws (LL.M.) graduate in International Business and Economic Law at Georgetown University Law Center and a graduate of Strathmore University,

I. INTRODUCTION

While the new African continent-

 $ROO, non-tariff \ bartrisONO, cateaat-13 (ri-13 (on (,)-41 ta)7 (a)-6 dei-13 (,)-41 fa)-6 ct-13 (ri7 (li7 (ri-13 ((t)7 (a)7 tt-13 (ta)7 (a)-6 dei-13 (ta)7 (ta)$ abay aphyt(t)7osOabay ba(SO, -41(a)7nd tiribabtbarrisOtimiet programs that unilaterally opened developed country markets to trade from emerging markets.⁵⁰ Another phase, which coinc(from0 g1ET* nBT/F1 12 Tf1 o nBT/F1 12 Tf1v7/(, w)-6(UBTrugu(c)7y R/F14(ng) with their impact.⁸⁰ South-south RTAs and mega-regional deals,⁸¹ such as the AfCFTA, represent a different aspect of this progression.

Another ongoing challenge to S&D and trade and development is the broad categorization of "developing" countries, which raises q eso ł de crafted that they are driven by Africa's particular economic, geographic, and even legal circumstances, with S&D provided based on need. For exampa ;, the Af F A's Vro^o ocol on trade

a

doing so, the AfCFTA should re-	es	r	S	R	S
---------------------------------	----	---	---	---	---

genetic resources,¹⁶⁹ as does Zambia's law,

African developments. With respect to the latter, the draft Pan African Investment Code (PAIC) is emerging as a "unique legal instrument" due to its "Africa-specific" and development-resolution and ISDS would also align with recent changes in other RTAs, as discussed below.

While an exhaustive assessment of other countries' investment laws was beyond the scope of this paper, other Afr incrf 0 lingly evaluling merger45-6()-207(1)3.nd prohibied prlice45-6(.)] TJETQq0.000018246 0 61

8. Provisions on Remedies and Resolution of Disputes: These could be needed to both regulates mergers that have trade distorting effects and result in the abuse of dominant market position,²⁸⁸7(ort)7(i)7(ng)-123.5000912 0 612 792 reW* nrot Tm0 c1 12 Tf20(i)7(s395 c1 1on-124(e2 Tm0 g7( consumer protection is also enshrined in Kenya's Competition Act, provided that goods meet relevant standards, such as product safety standards.²⁹⁵

The laws of Botswana and Namibia are also notable. Botswana's Competition s e; 's including those to address barriers to trade in environmental goods and services, ³¹⁸ phase out fossil specific focus, as highlighted by the recent Digital Economy Partnership Agreement signed by Chile, New Zealand, and Singapore which references indigenous communities, women, rural populations, and low socio-economic groups. ³³¹

USMCA

Although the AfCFTA is still in its early stages, and more research on