

BRIEFING ROOM

Roadmap for a Renewed U.S.- Canada Partnership

FEBRUARY 23, 2021 •

COVAX Facility.

- The leaders emphasized their strong support for the multilateral institutions that are on the front lines of COVID-19 response, including the women-owned and minority/Indigenous-owned SMEs, by leveraging the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA) SME chapter and the Small Business Development Center (SBDC) model.

- The two leaders launched a strategy to strengthen Canada-U.S. supply chain security and agreed to reinforce our deeply interconnected and mutually beneficial economic relationship.

expressed their commitment to strengthened implementation of the Paris Agreement, including by working together and with others to increase the scale and speed of action to address together to help safeguard the with disabilities, and all other forms of discrimination and exclusion.

behind due to COVID-19, including by addressing the she-cession caused by the pandemic through ready, and capable forces in line with their commitments to NATO under the 2014 Wales Summit Defense Investment Pledge. Such investments enable effective contributions to NATO, United Nations, and other global missions.

-

issues related to continental security, economic and social development, and Arctic governance.

- They also agreed to expand cooperation with respect to the promotion of democracy, human rights, and media freedom in our hemisphere and around the world. The Prime Minister committed to partnering with the United States on democratic processes, gross vio3977.&n